9 registration thereof. The court shall not be bound by the report
10 of the examiner of title, but may require other or further proof.

1 SECTION 35. If, in any case, an appearance is entered and 2 answer filed, the cause shall be set down for hearing on the motion
3 of either party, but a default and order shall first be entered against 4 all persons who do not appear and answer, in the manner provided 5 in the preceding section. The court may refer the cause or any 6 part thereof to one of the examiners of title, as master, to hear the 7 parties and their evidence, and make report thereof to the court.
8 His report shall have the same effect as that of a master appointed 9 by the superior court in equity, and he shall proceed according to 10 the rules of said court applicable to masters, except as the same 11 may be modified by the rules of the court of land registration.
12 The court may, in any case before decree, require a survey to be 13 made for the purpose of determining boundaries, and may order 14 durable bounds to be set, and referred to in the application, by 15 amendment. The expense of survey and bounds shall be taxed in 16 the costs of the case and may be apportioned among the parties as 17 justice may require. If no persons appear to oppose the applica-18 tion, such expense shall be borne by the applicant.

1898, 562, § 36.

1 SECTION 36. If the court finds that the applicant has not title
2 proper for registration, a decree shall be entered dismissing the 3 application, and such decree may be ordered to be without preju-
4 dice. The applicant may withdraw his application at any time
5 before final decree, upon terms to be determined by the court.

Dismissal, etc.,
of application
1898, 562, § 37.

1 SECTION 37. If the court after a hearing finds that the applicant
2 has title as stated in his application, and proper for registration, a 3 decree of confirmation and registration shall be entered, which shall 4 bind the land and quiet the title thereto, subject only to the excep-
5 tions stated in the following section. It shall be conclusive upon 6 and against all persons, including the commonwealth, whether 7 mentioned by name in the application, notice or citation, or in-8 cluded in the general description "to all whom it may concern".
9 Such decree shall not be opened by reason of the absence, infancy
10 or other disability of any person affected thereby, nor by any pro-11 ceeding at law or in equity for reversing judgments or decrees;
12 subject however to the right of any person deprived of land or of 13 any estate or interest therein by a decree of registration obtained by 14 fraud to file a petition for review within one year after the entry of 15 the decree, provided no innocent purchaser for value has acquired an 16 interest. If there is any such purchaser, the decree of registration 17 shall not be opened but shall remain in full force and effect forever, 18 subject only to the right of appeal hereinbefore provided. But 19 any person who is aggrieved by such decree in any case may pursue 20 his remedy by action of tort against the applicant or against any 21 other person for fraud in procuring the decree.

First, Liens, claims or rights arising or existing under the laws or constitution of the United States which the statutes of this commonwealth cannot require to appear of record in the registry. 7 8 9

Second, Taxes, within two years after they have been committed to the collector. 10 11

Fourth, Any lease for a term not exceeding seven years. 16

Fifth, Any liability to assessment for betterments, or other statutory liability which may attach to land in this commonwealth as a lien prior to, or independent of, the recording or registering of any paper; but if there are easements or other rights appurtenant to a parcel of registered land which for any reason have failed to be registered, such easements or rights shall remain so appurtenant notwithstanding such failure, and shall be held to pass with the land until cut off or extinguished by the registration of the servient estate, or in any other manner. 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

SECTION 39. Every decree of registration shall bear date of the year, month, day, hour and minute of its entry and shall be signed by the recorder. It shall state whether the owner of the land registered is married or unmarried, and if married, the name of the husband or wife. If such owner is under disability it shall state the nature of the disability, and if a minor, shall state his age. It shall contain a description of the land as finally determined by the court, shall set forth the estate of the owner and also, in such manner as to show their relative priority, all particular estates, mortgages, easements, liens, attachments and other encumbrances, including rights of husband or wife, if any, to which the land or the owner's estate is subject, and may contain any other matter properly to be determined in pursuance of this chapter. SECTION 40. Immediately upon the entry of the decree of registration, the recorder shall send a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, to the register of deeds for the district or districts in which the land lies, and the register, as assistant recorder, shall transcribe the decree in a book to be called the registration book, in which a leaf or leaves in consecutive order shall be devoted exclusively to each title, and note therein the day, hour and minute when said decree is transcribed. The entry made by the assistant recorder in this book in each case shall be the original certificate of title, and shall be signed by him and sealed with the seal of the court. All certificates of title shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one. The assistant recorder shall in each case make an exact duplicate of the original certificate, including the seal, but putting on it the words "Owner's duplicate certificate", and deliver it to the owner or to his duly authorized attorney.  19 ant recorder, with a reference noted on it to the place of record of 20 the original certificate of title. If an application includes land 21 lying in more than one district the court shall cause the part lying 22 in each district to be described separately by metes and bounds in 23 the decree of registration, the recorder shall send to the assistant 24 recorder for each registry district a copy of the decree containing a 25 description of the land within that district, the assistant recorder 26 shall register the same and issue an owner's duplicate therefor and 27 thereafter, for all matters pertaining to registration, the portion in 28 each district shall be treated as a separate parcel of land.

1 SECTION 41. The certificate first registered in pursuance of a 2 decree of registration in regard to any parcel of land shall, in the 3 registration book, be entitled "Original certificate of title, entered 4 pursuant to decree of the court of land registration, dated at" (stat-
 5 ing time and place of entry of decree and the number of the case).
 6 The certificate shall take effect from the date of the transcription of 7 the decree. Subsequent certificates relating to the same land shall 8 be in like form, but shall be entitled "Transfer from No. " (the

 3 approval of the court, and take out several certificates for portions 4 thereof, or if he holds separate duplicate certificates for several dis-5 tinct parcels, he may surrender them and, with like approval, take 6 out a single duplicate certificate for the whole land, or several cer-
 7 tificates for different portions thereof. An owner who subdivides a 8 tract of registered land into lots shall file with the recorder a plan 9 thereof, when applying for a new certificate or certificates, and the 10 court, before issuing the same, shall cause the plan to be verified,

SECTION 47. Every certificate of title shall set forth the names of all the persons whose estates make up the estate in fee simple in the whole land, and duplicate certificates may be issued to each person, but the recorder or assistant recorder shall note in the registration book and on each duplicate, to whom such duplicate was issued.

1898, 562, § 49.

SECTION 48. The recorder, under the direction of the court, shall make and keep indexes of all applications and of all decrees of registration, and shall also index and classify all papers and instruments filed in his office which relate to applications and to registered titles. The recorder shall also, under the direction of the court, cause forms of indexes and registration and entry books to be prepared for the use of the assistant recorders. The court shall prepare and adopt convenient forms of certificates of title and shall also adopt general forms of memoranda to be used by the assistant recorders in registering the common forms of conveyance and other instruments to express briefly their effect.

VOLUNTARY DEALING WITH LAND AFTER ORIGINAL REGISTRATION.

Owner of registered land may convey,
etc.
1898, 562, § 50.

SECTION 49. An owner of registered land may convey, mortgage, lease, charge or otherwise deal with it as fully as if it had not been registered. He may use forms of deeds, mortgages, leases or other voluntary instruments like those now in use and which are sufficient in law for the purpose intended. But no deed, mortgage or other voluntary instrument, except a will and a lease for a term not exceeding seven years, which purports to convey or affect registered land, shall take effect as a conveyance or bind the land, but shall operate only as a contract between the parties, and as evidence of authority to the recorder or assistant recorder to make registration. The act of registration only shall be the operative act to convey or affect the land and in all cases the registration shall be made in the office of the assistant recorder for the district or districts in which the land lies.

Notice of encumbrances.
1898, 562, § 51.

SECTION 50. Every conveyance, lien, attachment, order, decree, instrument or entry affecting registered land, which would under other provisions of law, if recorded, filed or entered in the registry of deeds, affect the land to which it relates, shall, if registered, filed or entered in the office of the assistant recorder of the district in which the land to which such instrument relates lies, be notice to all persons from the time of such registering, filing or entering.

Estate less than fee simple, how registered.
1898, 562, § 52.

SECTION 51. No new certificate shall be entered or issued upon any transfer of registered land which does not divest the title in fee simple from the owner or some one of the registered owners. All

4 interests in registered land less than an estate in fee simple shall be 5 registered by filing with an assistant recorder the instrument which 6 creates or transfers or claims such interest and by a brief memo-
7 randum thereof made by an assistant recorder upon the certificate 8 of title, and signed by him. A similar memorandum shall also be 9 made on the owner's duplicate. The cancellation or extinguishment 10 of such interests shall be registered in the same manner.

1 SECTION 52. If the assistant recorder is in doubt upon any 2 question, or if any party in interest does not agree as to the proper 3 memorandum to be made in pursuance of any deed, mortgage or 4 other voluntary instrument presented for registration, the question
5 shall be referred to the court for decision, either on the certificate 6 of the assistant recorder stating the question upon which he is in 7 doubt, or upon the suggestion in writing of any party in interest;
8 and the court, after notice to all parties and a hearing, shall enter
9 an order prescribing the form of memorandum to the assistant 10 recorder, who shall make registration in accordance therewith.

Reference of doubtful questions.
1898, 562, § 53.

1 SECTION 53. Every deed or other voluntary instrument which
2 is presented for registration shall contain or have indorsed upon it
3 the full name, residence and post office address of the grantee or 4 other person who acquires or claims an interest under such instru-
5 ment, and every deed shall also state whether the grantee is married 6 or unmarried, and if married, the name in full of the husband or wife.
7 Any change in the residence or post office address of such person
8 shall be indorsed by an assistant recorder on the original instru-
9 ment, upon receiving a sworn statement of such change. All 10 names and addresses shall also be entered on all certificates. No-11 tices and processes issued in relation to registered land may be 12 served upon any person in interest by mailing them to the address 13 so given, and shall be binding, whether he resides within or without 14 the commonwealth.

Grantee's residence, etc., to be stated.
1898, 562, § 54.

1 SECTION 54. No new certificate of title shall be entered, and no
2 memorandum shall be made upon any certificate of title by the 3 recorder or any assistant recorder, in pursuance of any deed or 4 other voluntary instrument, unless the owner's duplicate certificate
5 is presented with such instrument, except in cases expressly pro-
6 vided for in this chapter or upon the order of the court, for cause
7 shown, and whenever such order is made, a memorandum thereof
8 shall be entered on the new certificate of title and on the owner's 9 duplicate. The production of the owner's duplicate certificate, 10 whenever a voluntary instrument is presented for registration, shall 11 be conclusive authority from the registered owner to the recorder
12 or an assistant recorder to enter a new certificate or to make a 13 memorandum of registration in accordance with such instrument, 14 and the new certificate or memorandum shall be binding upon the 15 registered owner and upon all persons claiming under him, in favor 16 of every purchaser for value and in good faith. In all cases of 17 registration which are procured by fraud, the owner may pursue all 18 his legal and equitable remedies against the parties to such fraud, 19 without prejudice however to the rights of any innocent holder for value of a certificate of title. After the transcription of the decree of registration on the original application, any subsequent registration which is procured by the presentation of a forged duplicate certificate, or of a forged deed or other instrument, shall be null and void. In case of the loss or theft of an owner's duplicate certificate, notice shall be sent by the owner or by a person in his behalf to the assistant recorder for the district in which the land lies, as soon as the loss or theft is discovered.

Entry book.
Duplicates and certified copies.
1898, 562, § 56.

SECTION 55. Each assistant recorder shall keep an entry book in which he shall enter, in the order of their reception, all deeds and other voluntary instruments, and all copies of writs or other processes filed with him which relate to registered land. He shall note in such book the year, month, day, hour and minute of reception of all instruments, in the order in which they are received. They shall be regarded as registered from the time they are so noted, and the memorandum of each instrument, when made on the certificate of title to which it refers, shall bear the same date.

Every deed or other instrument, voluntary or involuntary, which is so filed with the recorder or assistant recorder, shall be numbered and indexed, and indorsed with a reference to the proper certificate of title. All records and papers relative to registered land in the office of the recorder or of an assistant recorder shall be open to the public in the same manner as probate records, subject to such reasonable regulations as the recorder, under the direction of the court, may make.

Duplicates of all deeds and voluntary instruments which are filed and registered may be presented with the originals, shall be attested and sealed by the recorder or an assistant recorder, indorsed with the file number and other memoranda on the originals and may be taken away by the person who presents them.

Certified copies of all instruments which are filed and registered may also be obtained at any time, upon payment of the assistant recorder's fees.

CONVEYANCE IN FEE.

Conveyance in fee of registered lands.
1898, 562, § 57.
1899, 131, § 8.

SECTION 56. An owner who desires to convey his registered land or any portion thereof in fee shall execute a deed of conveyance, which the grantor or the grantee may present to the assistant recorder in the district in which the land lies. The grantor's duplicate certificate shall be produced and presented at the same time. The assistant recorder shall thereupon, in accordance with the rules and instructions of the court, make out in the registration book a new certificate of title to the grantee, and shall prepare and deliver to him an owner's duplicate certificate. The assistant recorder shall note upon the original and duplicate certificates the date of transfer, the volume and page of the registration book in which the new certificate is registered and a reference by number to the last preceding certificate. The grantor's duplicate certificate shall be surrendered and the word "cancelled" shall be stamped upon it. The original certificate shall also be stamped "cancelled". The deed of conveyance shall be filed and indorsed with the number and place of registration of the certificate of title of the land conveyed.

1 SECTION 57. If a deed in fee is for a part only of the land
2 described in a certificate of title, the assistant recorder shall also,
3 in accordance with the rules and instructions of the court, enter a 4 new certificate and issue an owner's duplicate to the grantor for the 5 part of the land which is not included in the deed. In every case 6 of transfer, the new certificate or certificates shall include all the 7 land described in the original and surrendered certificates; but no
8 new certificate to a grantee of a part only of the land shall be 9 invalid by reason of the failure of the assistant recorder to enter a 10 new certificate to the grantor for the remaining unconveyed por-11 tion. If the land which is described in a certificate of title is 12 divided into lots, designated by numbers or letters, with measure-13 ments of all the bounds, and a plan of said land has been filed with 14 the recorder and verified pursuant to the provisions of section 15 forty-three, and a certified copy thereof is recorded in the registra-
16 tion book with the original certificate when the registered owner 17 makes a deed of transfer in fee of one or more of such lots, the 18 assistant recorder may, instead of cancelling such certificate and 19 entering a new certificate to the grantor for the part of the land
20 not included in the deed of transfer, enter on the original certificate 21 and on the owner's duplicate certificate a memorandum of such 22 deed of transfer, with a reference to the lot or lots thereby con-23 veyed, as designated on said plan, and that the certificate is 24 cancelled as to such lot or lots. Every certificate with such memo-
25 randum shall be as effectual for the purpose of showing the grantor's 26 title to the remainder of the land not conveyed as if the old cer-27 tificate had been cancelled and a new certificate of such land had 28 been entered; and such process may be repeated so long as there 29 is convenient space upon the original certificate and the owner's 30 duplicate certificate for making such memorandum of sale of lots.

Deed of portion of registered fee.
1898, 562, § 58.
1900, 354, § 6.

1 SECTION 58. If, at the time of any transfer, encumbrances or 2 claims adverse to the title of the registered owner appear upon the 3 registration book, they shall be stated in the new certificate or cer-
4 tificates, except so far as they may be simultaneously released or 5 discharged.

Statement of encumbrances.
1898, 562, § 59.

MORTGAGES.

1 SECTION 59. The owner of registered land may mortgage it by 2 executing a mortgage deed. Such deed may be assigned, extended, 3 discharged, released in whole or in part, or otherwise dealt with by 4 the mortgagee by any form of deed or instrument which is sufficient
5 in law for the purpose. But such mortgage deed, and all instru-
6 ments which assign, extend, discharge and otherwise deal with the 7 mortgage, shall be registered, and shall take effect upon the title
8 only from the time of registration.

Mortgage of registered
land.
1898, 562, § 60.

1 SECTION 60. Registration of a mortgage shall be made in the 2 following manner:—The owner's duplicate certificate shall be pre-3 sented to the assistant recorder with the mortgage deed, and he 4 shall enter upon the original certificate of title and also upon the 5 owner's duplicate certificate a memorandum of the purport of the 6 mortgage deed, the time of filing and the file number of the deed, 7 and shall sign the memorandum. He shall also note upon the mortgage deed the time of filing and a reference to the volume and page of the registration book in which it is registered. The assistant recorder shall also, at the request of the mortgagee, make out and deliver to him a duplicate of the certificate of title like the owner's duplicate, except that the words "Mortgagee's duplicate" shall be stamped upon it in large letters diagonally across its face. A memorandum of the issue of the mortgagee's duplicate shall be made upon the original certificate of title.

Assignment,
etc., of mortgage.
1898, 562, § 62.

SECTION 61. If a mortgage upon which a mortgagee's duplicate has been issued is assigned, extended or otherwise dealt with, the mortgagee's duplicate shall be presented with the instrument which assigns, extends or otherwise deals with the mortgage, and a memorandum of the instrument shall be made upon the mortgagee's duplicate certificate. When the mortgage is discharged or otherwise extinguished the mortgagee's duplicate certificate shall be surrendered and stamped "cancelled". The production of the mortgagee's duplicate certificate shall be conclusive authority to register the instrument therewith presented, subject however to all the provisions and exceptions contained in section fifty-five so far as they are applicable.

A mortgage on registered land may be discharged by the mortgagee in person on the registration book in the same manner as a mortgage on unregistered land may be discharged by an entry on the record book in the registry of deeds, and such discharge shall be attested by an assistant recorder.

Foreclosure of mortgages.
1898, 562, § 63.

SECTION 62. Mortgages of registered land may be foreclosed like mortgages of unregistered land: but in case of foreclosure by entry and possession, the certificate of entry required by section two of chapter one hundred and eighty-seven shall be filed and registered by an assistant recorder within thirty days after the entry, in lieu of recording. After possession has been obtained by the mortgagee or his assigns, by entry or by action, and has continued for the time required by law to complete the foreclosure, he or his assigns may petition the court of land registration for the entry of a new certificate, and the court, after notice to all parties in interest, shall have jurisdiction to hear the cause, and may order the entry of a new certificate on such terms as equity and justice may require.

In case of foreclosure by action as provided in chapter one hundred and eighty-seven, and by exercising the power of sale in the mortgage under the direction of the court as provided therein, a certified copy of the final decree of the court confirming the sale may, after the time for appealing therefrom has expired, be filed with the assistant recorder, and the purchaser shall thereupon be entitled to the entry of a new certificate.

In case of foreclosure by exercising the power of sale without a previous decree of court, the affidavit required by section fifteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-seven shall be filed and registered with the assistant recorder, in lieu of recording. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale or his assigns may thereupon at any time present the deed under the power of sale to the assistant recorder for filing and registration, and obtain a new certificate, after the owner's duplicate certificate and the mortgagee's duplicate,

28 if any, has been delivered up and cancelled: but the provisions of 29 this chapter shall not prevent the mortgagor or other person in 30 interest, prior to the entry of a new certificate of title, from 31 directly impeaching, by bill in equity or otherwise, any foreclosure 32 proceedings which affect registered land.

33 After a new certificate of title has been entered, no judgment
 34 which may be recovered on the mortgage note for any balance due 35 thereon shall operate to open the foreclosure or affect the title to 36 registered land.

LEASES.

1 SECTION 63. Leases of registered land for a term of seven years
 2 or more shall be registered, in lieu of recording. A lessee's dupli-
 3 cate certificate may be issued to the lessee upon his request, subject
 4 to the provisions hereinbefore made relative to a mortgagee's dupli-
 5 cate certificate, so far as they are applicable.

Leases of registered land.
 1898, 562, § 64.

TRUSTS.

1 SECTION 64. If a deed or other instrument is filed for the pur-
 2 pose of transferring registered land in trust, or upon any equitable 3 condition or limitation expressed therein, or for the purpose of 4 creating or declaring a trust or other equitable interest in such land
 5 without transfer, the particulars of the trust, condition, limitation 6 or other equitable interest shall not be entered on the certificate;
 7 but a memorandum thereof shall be entered by the words "in trust", 8 or "upon condition", or other apt words, and by a reference by 9 number to the instrument which authorizes or creates the same. A 10 similar memorandum shall be made upon the duplicate certificate.
 11 The assistant recorder shall note upon the original instrument which 12 creates or declares the trust or other equitable interest a reference 13 by number to the certificate of title to which it relates, and to the 14 volume and page in the registration book in which it is registered.
 15 If the instrument which creates or declares a trust or other equitable 16 interest is already recorded in the registry of deeds or of probate, 17 a certified copy may be filed by the assistant recorder and registered.

Trusts in registered land.
 1898, 562, § 65.

1 SECTION 65. If the instrument which creates or declares a trust
 2 or other equitable interest contains an express power to sell, mort-
 3 gage or deal with the land in any manner, such power shall be stated 4 in the certificate of title by the words "with power to sell", or 5 "power to mortgage", and by apt words of description in case of 6 other powers. No instrument which transfers, mortgages or in any 7 way deals with registered land held in trust shall be registered, 8 unless the power thereto enabling is expressly conferred in the in-9 strument of trust, or unless the decree of a court of competent juris-
 10 diction on a bill for instructions or other proceeding has construed
 11 the instrument in favor of the power. In such case a certified copy 12 of such decree may be filed with the assistant recorder, and he shall 13 make registration in accordance therewith.

1898, 562, § 105.

ADVERSE CLAIMS.

1 SECTION 105. Whoever claims any right or interest in registered 2 land adverse to the registered owner which arises subsequent to the 3 date of original registration may, if no other provision is made in 4 this chapter for registering the same, make a statement in writing 5 setting forth fully his alleged right or interest, and how or under 6 whom it was acquired, and a reference to the volume and page of 7 the certificate of title of the registered owner, and a description of 8 the land in which the right or interest is claimed. The statement
9 shall be signed and sworn to, and shall state the adverse claimant's
10 residence, and designate a place at which all notices may be served 11 upon him. This statement shall be entitled to registration as an 12 adverse claim, and the court, upon the petition of any party in in-13 terest, shall grant a speedy hearing upon the question of the validity
14 of such adverse claim, and shall enter such decree thereon as justice
15 and equity may require. If the claim is adjudged to be invalid, 16 the registration shall be cancelled. If the court, after notice and a 17 hearing, finds that a claim thus registered was frivolous or vexatious, 18 it may tax the adverse claimant double costs.

SURRENDER OF DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES.

1 SECTION 106. If the recorder or any assistant recorder is re-

3 which purports to be executed by the registered owner, or by reason
4 of any instrument or proceedings which divest the title of the regis-
5 tered owner against his consent, and the outstanding owner's dupli-
6 cate certificate is not presented for cancellation when such request 7 is made, the recorder or assistant recorder shall not enter a new certificate, but the person who claims to be entitled thereto may apply by petition to the court. The court, after a hearing, may order the registered owner or any person withholding the duplicate certificate to surrender it, and direct the entry of a new certificate upon such surrender. If the person withholding the duplicate certificate is not amenable to the process of the court, or if for any reason the outstanding owner's duplicate certificate cannot be delivered up, the court may by decree annul it and order a new certificate of title to be entered. Such new certificate and all duplicates thereof shall contain a memorandum of the annulment of the outstanding duplicate.

If an outstanding mortgagee's or lessee's duplicate certificate is not produced and surrendered when the mortgage is discharged or extinguished or the lease is terminated, like proceedings may be had to obtain registration as in the case of the non-production of an owner's duplicate.

No erasure, alteration or amendment shall be made upon the registration book after the entry of a certificate of title or of a memorandum thereon and the attestation of the same by the recorder or an assistant recorder, except by order of the court. A registered owner or other person in interest may at any time apply by petition to the court, upon the ground that registered interests of any description, whether vested, contingent, expectant or inchoate, have terminated and ceased; or that new interests have arisen or been created which do not appear upon the certificate; or that any error or omission was made in entering a certificate or any memorandum thereon, or on any duplicate certificate; or that the name of any person on the certificate has been changed; or that the registered owner has married, or if registered as married, that the marriage has been terminated; or that a corporation which owned registered land and has been dissolved has not conveyed the same within three years after its dissolution; or upon any other reasonable ground; and the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the petition after notice to all parties in interest, and may order the entry of a new certificate, the entry or cancellation of a memorandum upon a certificate or grant any other relief upon such terms, requiring security if necessary, as it may consider proper; but the provisions of this section shall not give the court authority to open the original decree of registration, and nothing shall be done or ordered by the court which shall impair the title or other interest of a purchaser who holds a certificate for value and in good faith, or his heirs or assigns, without his or their written consent.

Any petition filed under the provisions of this section and all petitions and motions filed under the provisions of this chapter after original registration shall be filed and entitled in the original case in which the decree of registration was entered.

If, at the expiration of the time allowed for the proof of claims, a person is liable as a surety for the deceased, or has a contingent claim against his estate which could not be proved as a debt within said time, the court upon proof of such facts shall, in ordering a dividend, leave in the hands of the executor or administrator an amount sufficient to pay to such contingent creditor a proportion equal to what is then to be paid to the other creditors.

5 the dividend upon it does not exhaust the assets in the hands of the 6 executor or administrator, the residue of the assets shall be divided 7 among all creditors who have proved their debts. If there is a 8 surplus after satisfying the claims of such creditors, with interest, 9 it shall be distributed to the persons legally entitled thereto.

ACTIONS BY CREDITORS DURING PENDENCY OF INSOLVENCY PRO-CEEDINGS.

1 SECTION 30. Except as provided in the following section, no

3 an estate has been represented insolvent, unless for a claim entitled 4 to a preference which would not be affected by the insolvency of 5 the estate or unless the assets prove more than sufficient to pay all

8 not entitled to such preference, the action may be discontinued 9 without costs; or, if it is disputed, the action may be tried and 11 with the same effect as is provided in the case of an appeal from the 12 allowance or disallowance of the claim of a creditor; or the action

13 may be continued without costs until it appears whether the estate
14 is insolvent, and, if it is not insolvent, the plaintiff may prosecute 15 the action as if no such representation had been made.

CHAPTER 144.

OF THE SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES OF ABSENTEES.

Petition for appointment of receiver.
1894, 203.
1897, 447, § 1.

SECTION 1. If a resident of the commonwealth having property therein has disappeared, absconded or is absent therefrom and has left no agent therein and his whereabouts are unknown; or if such resident, who has a wife or minor child dependent upon him wholly or partly for support, has disappeared without making sufficient provision for such support and his whereabouts are unknown, or if

7 it is known that they are without the commonwealth, a person who 8 would be entitled to administer upon his estate if he were dead, or 9 such wife, or a person in behalf of such wife or minor child, may 10 file a petition, under oath, in the probate court for the county in 11 which any such property is located or found, stating the name, age, 12 occupation and last known residence or address of such absentee,
13 the date and circumstances of his disappearance, and the names
14 and residence of the family of such absentee and of other persons 15 of whom inquiry may be made and containing a schedule of his 16 property, real and personal, so far as known, and its location within 17 the commonwealth, and praying that such property may be taken
18 possession of and a receiver thereof appointed under the provisions 19 of this chapter.

1 SECTION 2. The court may thereupon issue a warrant directed 2 to the sheriff or his deputy, which may run into and be served in 3 any county, commanding him to take possession of the property, 4 named in said schedule and hold the same subject to the order of 5 the court and make return of said warrant as soon as may be with his 6 doings thereon with a schedule of the property taken possession of 7 by virtue thereof. The officer shall post a copy of the warrant
8 upon each parcel of land named in the schedule and cause so much 9 of the warrant as relates to land to be recorded in the registry of 10 deeds for the county and district in which the land is located. He 11 shall receive such fees for serving the warrant as the court allows 12 but not more than those established by law for similar service upon 13 a writ of attachment. If the petition is dismissed, said fees and 14 the cost of publishing and serving the notice hereinafter provided 15 shall be paid by the petitioner. If a receiver is appointed said fees 16 and cost shall be paid by the receiver and allowed in his account.

Warrant.
1897, 447, § 1.

1 SECTION 3. Upon the return of such warrant, the court may 2 issue a notice which shall recite the substance of the petition, war-
3 rant and officer's return and shall be addressed to such absentee and 4 to all persons who claim an interest in said property, and to all
5 whom it may concern, citing them to appear at a time and place
6 named and show cause why a receiver of the property named in the 7 officer's schedule should not be appointed and said property held 8 and disposed of under the provisions of this chapter.

Notice.
1897, 447, § 1.

1 SECTION 4. The return day of said notice shall be not less than 2 thirty nor more than sixty days after its date. The court shall 3 cause said notice to be published in one or more newspapers within 4 the commonwealth, once in each of three successive weeks and to 5 be posted in two or more conspicuous places in the city or town in 6 which the absentee last resided or was known to have been either 7 temporarily or permanently and upon each parcel of land named in 8 the officer's schedule, and a copy to be mailed to the last known 9 address of such absentee. The court may order other and further 10 notice to be given within or without the commonwealth. The 11 certificate of the register of the court that he has served the notice 12 as directed by the court shall be filed before the return day and 13 shall be conclusive proof of such service.

Bond.
1897, 447, §§ 1, 2.

SECTION 5. The absentee and any person who claims an interest 1 in any of the property may appear and show cause why the prayer 2 of the petition should not be granted. The court may after hearing 3 dismiss the petition and order the property in possession of the 4 officer to be returned to the person entitled thereto, or it may 5 appoint a receiver of the property which is in the possession of the 6 officer and named in his schedule. If a receiver is appointed the 7 court shall find and record the date of the disappearance or abscond- 8 ing of the absentee; and such receiver shall give bond to the judge 9 of probate and his successors in office in such sum and with such 10 condition as the court orders, with a company named in section 11 sixty-one of chapter one hundred and eighteen and approved by 12
the court as surety thereon. 13

Transfer of property, etc.

SECTION 6. After the filing and approval of such bond the 1 court may order the sheriff or his deputy to transfer and deliver to 2 such receiver the possession of the property under the aforesaid 3 warrant, and the receiver shall file in the registry of probate a 4 schedule of the property received by him. 5

property.
Debts.

SECTION 7. Such receiver upon petition filed by him may be 1 authorized and directed to take possession of any additional prop- 2 erty within the commonwealth which belongs to such absentee and 3 to demand and collect all debts due such absentee from any person 4 within the commonwealth, and hold the same as if it had been 5 transferred and delivered to him by the officer. 6

Management and sale of property.
1897, 447, § 3.

SECTION 8. The court may make orders for the care, custody, 1 leasing and investing of said property and its proceeds. If any of 2 said property consists of live animals or is perishable or cannot be 3 kept without great or disproportionate expense, the court may, at 4 any time after the return of the warrant, order such property to be 5 sold at public or private sale. After the appointment of a receiver, 6 upon his petition and after notice, the court may order all or part of 7 said property, including the rights of the absentee in land, to be 8 sold at public or private sale to supply money for payments author- 9
ized by this chapter or for re-investment approved by the court. 10

Allowance to widow and children.
1897, 447, § 3.

SECTION 9. The court may order said property or its proceeds 1 acquired by mortgage, lease or sale to be applied in payment of 2 charges incurred or that may be incurred in the support and main- 3 tenance of the absentee's wife and minor children, and to the dis- 4 charge of such debts as may be proved against said absentee. 5

Compensation
of receiver;
accounts;
barring of
suits.
1897, 447, § 6.

SECTION 10. The receiver shall be allowed such compensation 1 and such disbursements as the court orders to be paid out of said 2 property or its proceeds. If such absentee appears within fourteen 3 years after the date of the disappearance and absconding as found 4 and recorded by the court, the receiver shall account to him for, 5 deliver and pay over the unexpended balance of said property. 6
If, within said fourteen years, an administrator, executor, assignee 7 in insolvency or trustee in bankruptcy of said absentee is appointed, 8 such receiver shall account for, deliver and pay over to him the 9 unexpended balance of said property. If said absentee does not 10

11 appear and claim said property within said fourteen years, all 12 the right, title and interest of said absentee in said property, real 13 or personal, or the proceeds thereof shall be barred and no action, 14 suit or petition in any form shall be commenced by said absentee
 15 after the expiration of said fourteen years for or on account of said 16 property or its proceeds.

1 SECTION 11. If, at the expiration of said fourteen years, said
 2 property has not been accounted for, delivered or paid over under 3 the provisions of the preceding section, the court shall order the 4 distribution of the unexpended balance thereof to the persons to 5 whom, and in the shares and proportions in which, it would have 6 been distributed if said absentee had died intestate on the day four-7 teen years after the date of the disappearance or absconding as 8 found and recorded by the court.

Distribution of
 property.
 1897, 447, §§ 4, 5.

1 SECTION 12. If such receiver is not appointed within thirteen
 2 years after the date found by the court under the provisions of 3 section five, the time limited for accounting for, or fixed for dis-
 4 tributing, said property or its proceeds, or for barring actions
 5 relative thereto, shall be one year after the date of the appointment
 6 of the receiver instead of the fourteen years provided in the two 7 preceding sections.

Limitation if receiver is not appointed

 years.

Sureties shall not be sufficient unless they are satisfactory to the plaintiff, or unless the magistrate finds that each, if there are only two, is worth, in excess of his indebtedness, an amount equal to that for which the attachment is laid; or, if there are more than two, that they are together worth twice such amount.

1 SECTION 121. A defendant may, at any time before final judg-
 2 ment, release from attachment the property attached, or such part 3 thereof as he may elect, by giving bond to the plaintiff with sufficient
 4 sureties, who shall be approved by the plaintiff or by his attorney
 5 in writing, by a master in chancery or by a justice of a court of 7 justice, conditioned to pay to the plaintiff within thirty days after 8 final judgment in such action, or after the entry of a special judg-9 ment therein under the provisions of chapter one hundred and 10 seventy-seven the amount fixed as the value of the property so re-

 11 leased, or so much of said amount as may be necessary to satisfy 12 the amount, if any, which the plaintiff may recover; and the prop-

 14 the action do not agree upon the value of the property, the de-15 fendant, or a person in his behalf, may make written application to to which the hearing shall be adjourned. At such adjourned hear- 32

SECTION 123. If an attachment of real property is made under 1 the provisions of sections sixty-three and sixty-four, the person in 2 whose name the record title of the property attached stands, or a per- 3 son in his behalf, may, before final judgment, dissolve the attachment 4 by giving bond to the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, conditioned 5 to pay to him, if he establishes his title to the land in a writ of 6 entry against the person having the record title thereto at the time 7 of the attachment, the ascertained value of the land, or so much 8 thereof as shall satisfy the amount, if any, which the plaintiff shall 9 recover upon final judgment, or upon a special judgment under the 10 provisions of chapter one hundred and seventy-seven, in the action 11 in which such attachment was made. All proceedings required in 12 the two preceding sections shall apply to the dissolution of an at- 13

 writ of entry, the record of the attachment and of final or special 15 judgment, as the case may be, in the action in which the attach- 16
 ment was made shall be conclusive evidence of a momentary seisin 17 of the land in the plaintiff to enable him to maintain an action 18 therefor upon his own seisin; but no such writ of entry shall be 19 brought after the expiration of one year from the date of such final 20 or special judgment. If the demandant recovers judgment on such 21 writ of entry, he shall not have an execution for possession, but 22 may have an execution for costs. 23

SECTION 124. A defendant may dissolve an attachment by 1 depositing with the officer who makes the attachment an amount of 2 money equal at least to the amount of the ad damnum in the writ, 3 which the officer shall hold in place of the property attached and 4 which shall be subject to be disposed of in the same manner. 5

1 SECTION 125. A defendant whose individual property has been 2 attached in an action against several defendants may dissolve such 3 attachment, or any part thereof, in any of the modes provided in 4 the nine preceding sections. But the bond to dissolve such attach-5 ment shall be so conditioned as to apply only to a judgment re-

 2 be dissolved by the appointment by any court of competent juris-3 diction in this commonwealth of a receiver to take possession of 4 such property, if the bill or petition praying for the appointment
 5 of such receiver is filed in said court within four months after such 6 attachment was made, unless the court at any time, in its discretion,
 7 continues such attachment for the benefit of the estate of the de-8 fendant. In such case, the court may authorize the receiver to 9 prosecute the action upon which the attachment was made for the 10 benefit of the estate of the defendant and may make further orders 11 to enable the receiver to recover for the benefit of the estate of the 12 defendant the amount due to the plaintiff in the original action.

1 SECTION 127. If an attachment has been dissolved in the man-
 2 ner provided in the preceding section, the proceedings for the 3 appointment of a receiver shall not thereafter be dismissed and the 4 receiver discharged until all the assets which have come into his 5 hands as receiver have been fully distributed or the claim upon 6 which the attachment was made has been fully paid and discharged,
 7 unless the debtor, before such dismissal, deposits with the officer 8 who made the attachment such amount of money as the court be-
 9 fore which such receivership proceedings are pending, after notice
 10 to the attaching creditor and a hearing, finds reasonable for the 11 protection of his claim in the action in which the attachment was 12 made. Such money shall be held by the officer in place of the 13 property held under the attachment before its dissolution and shall 14 be disposed of as such property would have been disposed of had 15 the attachment not been dissolved.

To A. B.

C. D., the judgment creditor named in a certain execution against you, dated , issued from [the court], having applied for a certificate authorizing your arrest, you are hereby notified to appear before [the name or names of a magistrate or magistrates named in section twenty-nine of chapter one hundred and sixty-eight of the Revised Laws] at [the place of examination or hearing] on the day of at o'clock in the noon for examination upon the following charges, specified in section seventeen of chapter one hundred and sixty-eight of the Revised Laws, to wit: [Here specify the charges on which the debtor is to be examined.]

Date, signature and test as provided in section seventy-three.

1 SECTION 20. If the judgment debtor appears before the magis-

3 upon the charges specified in said notice to him. Such examination

6 to by the debtor, and shall be preserved by the magistrate. The 7 examination and hearing shall be oral, unless one of the parties
8 requests that it be wholly or partially in writing, and either party
9 may introduce additional evidence. If the debtor fails to appear 10 at the examination or, if appearing, fails to comply with all law-11 ful orders of the magistrate, or if the truth of one at least of 12 charges two to six, inclusive, specified in section seventeen, is 13 proved to the satisfaction of the magistrate, the arrest may be au-
14 thorized upon the original execution or upon an alias or other 15 successive execution issuing on the same judgment. If the time 16 for the return of the execution expires while the examination is 17 pending, the arrest may be authorized upon an alias or other suc-
18 cessive execution, in like manner and for the same reasons as upon 19 the original execution. If the time for the return of the execution 20 or of an alias or other successive execution, issuing on the same 21 judgment, expires after a certificate authorizing an arrest has been 22 affixed thereto, and before such arrest has been made thereon, a 23 copy of said original certificate, made and certified by the clerk of 24 the court or by the magistrate issuing such execution, shall be affixed 25 to any such alias or other successive execution, and such copy shall 26 have the same force and effect as the original certificate.

4 of property which is not exempt from being taken on execution,
5 with intent to prevent it from being transferred or paid to the 6 creditor, or applied by said proceedings to the satisfaction of the SECTION 44. After administering the oath, the magistrate shall make a certificate thereof as follows:—

—, ss. This certifies that A— B—, a poor prisoner arrested upon execution, (or on mesne process,) has caused E— F—, the creditor (or plaintiff) at whose suit he is arrested, to be notified according to law of his desire to take the benefit of the law for the relief of poor debtors; that it appears that said A— B— has not any property to the amount of twenty dollars, except the property which is by law exempt from being taken on execution, but not excepting intoxicating liquors; and has not any other property now conveyed, concealed or in any way disposed of, with design to secure the same to his own use or defraud his creditors. And after due examination of said A— B—, the oath for the relief of poor debtors was administered to him.

Upon taking the oath, the defendant or debtor shall be discharged from arrest or imprisonment, and shall be forever exempt from arrest on the same execution, or on any process founded on the judgment, or on the same cause of action, unless convicted of having wilfully sworn falsely on his examination. If he is arrested or committed on execution, the judgment shall remain in full force against his property and the creditor may take out a new execution against his property as if he had not been committed; and if he is committed on mesne process, any execution which may afterward issue on a judgment for the same cause of action shall issue against his property and not against his body. The death of the execution creditor shall not affect proceedings instituted under the provisions of this chapter.

place named therein to show cause why an examination into his circumstances should not be made and a decree be entered ordering him to pay such judgment in full or by instalments, weekly, monthly or otherwise. Said notice shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant or by leaving a copy at his last and usual place of abode, at least seven days before the return day thereof. At the hearing the court shall first ascertain if the creditor's claim is for the necessities of life, or for work or labor performed by the judgment creditor for the judgment debtor, as stated in his affidavit, and, if it so finds, it shall make inquiry, by examination of the judgment debtor or otherwise, as to his circumstances, his income from any source and his ability to pay said judgment; and if the debtor fails to appear at the time and place fixed, such inquiry may proceed in his absence. If it shall appear that said notice has not been served as herein required, the court may continue the proceedings and issue a new notice to the debtor. If the court finds that the debtor is not able at the time to pay said judgment in full or by partial payments from time to time, it shall enter a finding thereof, which shall be subject to revision upon like notice and inquiry and upon proof of changed circumstances. In such case, the clerk or justice shall not issue a subsequent notice to the debtor until the creditor or a person in his behalf has filed in court an affidavit stating in substance the evidence of the debtor's change of circumstances upon which he relies for a revision and until the court in its discretion has determined that there is occasion for a new inquiry into the debtor's circumstances. If the court finds that the debtor is able to pay the judgment in full or by partial payments from time to time, it may, after first allowing the debtor out of his income a reasonable amount for the support of himself and family, enter a decree fixing the time, place and amount of payments to be made by the debtor on said judgment out of his income in excess of said allowance.

Enforcement
of decree.
1898, 549, § 2.

SECTION 81. If the debtor at any time fails to comply with such decree the creditor may cause him to be notified to show cause therefor and, unless the debtor shows good cause therefor, the court may order that unless he complies with such decree or with such modification thereof as it may then make, within the time stated in said order, such failure shall be a contempt of court; and if, at the expiration of the time fixed by the court for compliance with such new decree, the debtor still fails or refuses to comply therewith, the court may enforce its decrees by proceedings for contempt as a court of equity might do; but not more than fourteen days' imprisonment shall be ordered by the court as punishment for any one such contempt. The debtor may be released by order of the court at any time, upon payment of the claim and costs or upon his giving a bond to the creditor, with one or more sureties who shall be approved by the court, conditioned that he will comply with all existing or subsequent decrees of the court; or, after seven days' imprisonment, he may be released by order of the court, upon filing in court his personal bond, conditioned that he will thenceforth comply with all decrees of the court. If the debtor is released upon his personal bond, as aforesaid, he may, if he does not comply with said decree within sixty days after his release or fails to show to the court good cause for his non-compliance, again be cited to

23 appear before the court by the creditor and proceeded against as for 24 a further contempt of court.

1 SECTION 82. A judgment debtor may himself apply by petition
2 for the benefit of the provisions of section eighty, and may cause a
3 creditor holding a judgment against him for the necessities of life
4 furnished to himself or his family to be cited to appear and show
5 cause why an examination, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be 6 made: and the court may, after a hearing, proceed in the case in the 7 same manner as if such application had been made by a creditor.

Application by debtor.
1898, 549, § 3.

1 SECTION 83. If a judgment creditor institutes proceedings as 2 provided in section eighty, all other processes or suits to enforce 3 or recover upon any judgment upon which such proceedings are 4 based and all actions or proceedings by other creditors against such 5 judgment debtor, relative to wages, shall be suspended, except as 6 provided in the following section, until the judgment or judgments
7 on which such proceedings are based shall have been fully satisfied;
8 but the provisions of this section shall not prevent the attachment 9 of any property of the debtor other than his wages, either before or 10 after judgment, or the levy of the execution thereon.

Suspension of other proceedings.
1898, 549, § 4.

1 SECTION 84. A creditor who has recovered a judgment upon a 2 claim for the necessities of life against a debtor against whom pro-
3 ceedings by another judgment creditor are pending under the pro-
4 visions of the four preceding sections may, upon motion and after 5 notice to all parties in interest, inquire into the validity and amount
6 of the claim of any judgment creditor for whose benefit the decree 7 under the provisions of said sections has been entered. Upon the 8 hearing of such motion, the court may order any judgment creditor 9 who is then a party to the proceeding to render an account to the 10 court of all amounts theretofore paid by the debtor upon such judg-11 ment, and may also, after a hearing, enter a decree revoking or 12 modifying any previous decree in the proceedings, and may order 13 that payments thereafter made by the judgment debtor be appor-14 tioned between the different judgment creditors who are then par-15 ties to such proceeding.

Inquiry as to validity of certain claims.
1898, 549, § 6.

1 SECTION 85. The court may, at any time upon written notice to 2 the opposite party or to his attorney of record, revise, modify or 3 suspend a decree made in any proceedings under the provisions of 4 the five preceding sections.

Revision of decrees.
1898, 549, § 5.

1 SECTION 86. No costs shall be allowed to either party after pro-
2 ceedings have been commenced under the provisions of the six pre-3 ceding sections, except that twenty-five cents shall be paid to the 4 clerk or justice who issues the notices therein provided, and the 5 same fees shall be paid to officers for copies, service, travel and 6 other expenses as are allowed by law in the service of writs, and 7 they shall be paid in the same manner.

Costs and fees.

But if the property of an absent defendant has been attached and the residence of such defendant is known to the plaintiff and no legal service can be made upon him within this commonwealth, except by publication, the court may order personal service to be made on him in such manner as it may order and, upon proof that service has been made as ordered, such defendant shall be held to answer to the action and no further service shall be necessary. § SECTION 77. If the parties to an action upon the trial list at a sitting of the superior court file an agreement in writing that such action shall be marked for trial not before a certain day in the same or the succeeding sitting, the action shall, if reached in its order upon said trial list before such day, be postponed thereto, and shall be placed upon the list of actions in order for trial on such day next after the cases, if any, which were on the list for the preceding court day: but, if it is in order for trial and is reached for trial on the day upon which the agreement is filed, it shall not be postponed except by order of the court. If two or more actions are so postponed to the same day, they shall be placed upon the trial list for that day in the order in which the agreements for their postponement were filed. SECTION 24. If a plaintiff would be entitled to a judgment or 1 to a decree, except for the bankruptcy or insolvency of the debtor 2 or his discharge therein, and if, more than four months prior to the 3 commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy, or, in voluntary pro- 4 ceedings in insolvency, more than four months prior to the time of 5 the first publication of the notice of the issuing of the warrant, or, 6 in involuntary proceedings, more than four months prior to the first 7 estate, interest or money of a debtor has been attached, or brought 9 within the control of a court of equity by proceedings under the 10 provisions of clause seven of section three of chapter one hundred 11 as remains unsatisfied. The creditor may also in case of such 24 refusal or delay have a writ of scire facias or action as provided in 25 section nineteen. The provisions of this section shall not impair 26

the powers which courts of equity may otherwise exercise. 27

 10 position in insolvency in which no assignment has been made, more
 11 than four months prior to the notice by the register to the creditors 12 of the debtor's proposal of composition, the court may at any time, 13 upon motion, enter a special judgment for the plaintiff, which shall 14 be a sufficient judgment, within the meaning of chapter one hun-

PETITION TO REQUIRE ACTION TO TRY TITLE.

1 SECTION 1. If the record title of land is clouded by an adverse 2 claim, or by the possibility of such claim, a person in possession of 3 such land who claims an estate of freehold therein or an unexpired 4 term of not less than ten years, and a person who by force of the such claim should be sustained, may file a petition in the superior court stating his interest, describing the land, the claims and the possible adverse claimants so far as known to him, and praying that such claimants may be summoned to show cause why they should not bring an action to try such claim. If no better description can be given, they may be described generally, as the heirs of A B or the like. Two or more persons who have separate and distinct parcels of land in the same county and hold under the same source of title, or persons who have separate and distinct interests in the same parcel or parcels, may join in a petition against the same supposed claimants. If the supposed claimants are residents of this commonwealth, the petition may be inserted like a declaration in a writ, and served by a copy, like a writ of original summons. Whoever is in the enjoyment of an easement shall be held to be in possession of land within the meaning of this section.

SECTION 2. If the petition is not so served, the court shall order notice of such petition to be given by publication to the supposed claimants, whether residents or non-residents of this commonwealth. Such notice shall bind all the world, but the court may also require personal or other notice, and if, upon return of the order of notice duly executed, the parties notified do not appear within the time limited or, having appeared, disobey the lawful order of the court to try their claim, the court shall enter a decree that they be forever barred from having or enforcing any such claim adversely to the petitioner, his heirs or assigns, in the land described.

SECTION 3. If the persons notified or summoned appear and disclaim all right and title adverse to the petitioner, they shall recover their costs. If they claim title, they shall by answer show why they should not be required to bring an action to try such title; and the court shall enter an appropriate decree relative to bringing and prosecuting such action. If the party or parties against whom a judgment or decree for a conveyance, release or acquittance may be rendered by any court in this commonwealth do not comply therewith, within the time therein limited, such judgment or decree shall, subject to the provisions of the following section, have the same effect as if the conveyance, release or acquittance had been executed conformably thereto.

decree has
1893, 340, § 4.

SECTION 4. A party against whom, without other notice than publication in a newspaper, a judgment or decree has been rendered under the provisions of the two preceding sections and whose right is barred thereby may recover from the party or parties in whose favor such judgment or decree was entered, their heirs or devisees, the value at the time action is brought of any interest or right, except of improvements made by the defendants, of which he may have been deprived by such judgment or decree, unless at the date of bringing such action an action which, but for such judgment or decree, he might have maintained for the recovery of such interest or the enforcement of such right would have been barred by the statute of limitations. Such judgment or decree may require the giving of a bond to respond to any such action brought within five years after the entry of such judgment or decree.

2 not apply to any property, right, title or interest of the common-3 wealth.

SUITS IN EQUITY TO QUIET TITLE.

1 SECTION 6. If in a suit in equity to quiet or establish the title to 2 land situated in this commonwealth or to remove a cloud from the 3 title thereto, it is sought to determine the claims or rights of any 4 persons who are unascertained, not in being, unknown or out of 5 the commonwealth, or who cannot be actually served with process 6 and made personally amenable to the decree of the court, such per-7 sons may be made defendants and, if they are unascertained, not in 8 being or unknown, they may be described generally, as the heirs or 9 legal representatives of A B, or such persons as shall become heirs, 10 devisees or appointees of C D, a living person, or persons claiming 11 under A B. It shall not be necessary for the maintenance of such 12 suit that the defendants shall have a claim or the possibility of a claim 13 resting upon an instrument the cancellation or surrender of which 14 would afford the relief desired: but it shall be sufficient that they 15 claim or may claim by purchase, descent or otherwise, some right, 16 title, interest or estate in the land which is the subject of the suit 17 and that their claim depends upon the construction of a written in-18 strument or cannot be met by the plaintiffs without the production 19 of evidence. Two or more persons who claim to own separate and 20 distinct parcels of land in the same county by titles derived from a 21 common source, or two or more persons who have separate and dis-
22 tinct interests in the same parcel, may join as plaintiffs in any suit 23 brought under the provisions of this section.

1 SECTION 7. If in such suit the court finds that actual service
2 cannot be, or has not been, made upon a defendant, it may at the 3 request of the plaintiff order notice of the suit to be posted in a 4 conspicuous place on the land or to be published in a newspaper
5 within or without the commonwealth, or both, or to be given in such 6 other manner as it considers most effectual, and may also require 7 personal notice to be given. Notice given under the provisions of 8 this section shall be constructive service on all the defendants.

Notice.
1897, 522, § 2.

1 SECTION 8. If, after notice has been given or served as provided
2 in the preceding section and the time limited in such notice for the 3 appearance of the defendants has expired, the court finds that there
4 are or may be defendants who have not been actually served with 5 process within the commonwealth and who have not appeared in 6 the suit, it may of its own motion, or on the representation of any 7 party, appoint a guardian ad litem or next friend of any such de-

9 interests, it may appoint different guardians ad litem or next friends 10 to represent them.

4 whom execution may issue therefor in the name of the guardian ad
5 litem or next friend.

SECTION 10. After all the defendants have been served with process or notified as provided in section seven and after the appointment of a guardian ad litem or next friend, if such appointment has been made, the court may proceed as though all the defendants had been actually served with process. Such suit shall be a proceeding in rem against the land, and a decree establishing or declaring the validity, nature or extent of the plaintiff's title may be entered, and shall operate directly on the land and shall have the force of a release made by or on behalf of all defendants of all claims inconsistent with the title established or declared thereby. The provisions of this and the four preceding sections shall not prevent the court from also exercising jurisdiction in personam against the defendants who have been actually served with process and who are personally amenable to its decrees.

cumbrances.

SECTION 11. If the title to land appears of record to be affected by a possible condition, restriction, reservation, stipulation or agreement made or imposed more than thirty years prior to the commencement of the proceedings hereinafter provided for, a person who has a freehold estate, vested or contingent, in possession, reversion or remainder, in said land, or in any undivided or any aliquot part thereof, or any interest therein which may become a freehold estate, and any person who has conveyed such estate or any such interest therein with covenants of title or warranty, may file a petition under oath in the superior court for the purpose of determining the validity, or defining the nature and extent, of such possible condition or other encumbrance, against any person who might be entitled in any event to enforce it or avail himself thereof. Two or more persons who own in severalty different portions of such estate or different interests therein may join in such petition, or two or more such defects of the same general character in the title to the same parcel of land or to different portions of the same parcel of land may be set forth in the same petition, and if the petition is contested the court shall make an appropriate order for separate issues.

Description of respondents.
1889, 442, § 2.

SECTION 12. If it is averred in the petition that there are necessary or proper respondents whose names are unknown to the petitioner, they may be described generally, as heirs or devisees of a person deceased, as persons claiming under certain persons named, as the owners of certain land, or otherwise, and if it is so averred that the true name of a respondent cannot be ascertained, he shall be described as accurately as practicable. If it is so averred that there are classes of necessary or proper respondents whom it is impracticable and unnecessary to name and to serve with process individually, they may be described generally. The court may, if in its opinion the petitioner can and should do so, require him by amendment to name or describe respondents more particularly.

Notice and appointment
of agent.
1889, 442, § 3.

SECTION 13. The court shall prescribe the notice to be given to non-resident respondents, to respondents whose residences are unknown, to unknown or unnamed respondents, and to any other re-

4 spondents upon whom for any reason service cannot be made. If 5 the court finds that there are respondents to be affected by the 6 decree, who have not had actual notice of the petition, it shall 7 appoint a disinterested person to act for them.

1 SECTION 14. Upon service of such notice, the court shall have 2 jurisdiction of all persons who are made respondents to the petition
3 in the manner above provided, and shall, upon a hearing, make a 4 decree determining the validity, nature or extent of any such pos-5 sible condition or other encumbrance, which shall be effectual to 6 exclude all the respondents from any claim thereunder contrary to 7 such determination, and shall have the same effect as a release by 8 such respondents of such claims. The court may award costs in 9 its discretion.

Decree.
1889, 442 §§ 4, 5.

DISCHARGE OF MORTGAGES.

1 SECTION 15. If the record title of land is encumbered by an 2 undischarged mortgage, and the mortgagor and those having his 3 estate therein have been in uninterrupted possession of the land, 4 either for twenty years after the expiration of the time limited in 5 the mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof, or 6 for twenty years from the date of a mortgage which was not given 7 to secure the payment of money or a debt but to secure the mort-
8 gagee against a contingent liability which has so ceased to exist 9 that no person will be prejudiced by the discharge thereof, the 10 mortgagor, or those having his estate in the land or any person 11 named in section eleven may file a petition in the superior court;
12 and if, after such notice by publication or otherwise as the court
13 orders, no evidence is offered of a payment on account of the debt 14 secured by said mortgage within twenty years after the expiration 15 of the time limited for the performance of the condition thereof or 16 of any other act within said time in recognition of its existence as a 17 valid mortgage, or if the court finds that such contingent liability 18 has ceased to exist and that the mortgage ought to be discharged, 19 it may enter a decree, reciting the facts and findings, which shall, 20 within thirty days after its entry, be recorded in the registry of 21 deeds for the county or district in which the land lies, and no 22 action to enforce a title under said mortgage shall thereafter be 23 maintained. Two or more persons who own in severalty different 24 portions or different interests such as are described in section eleven 25 in the land subject to the mortgage may join in one petition and 26 two or more defects arising under different mortgages affecting one 27 parcel of land may be set forth in the same petition. If the petition 28 is contested, the court shall make an appropriate order for separate

4 county commissioners of the county in which it is situated. Said
 5 commissioners shall retain and record such plans and specifications
 6 and shall inspect the work during its progress; and if at any time 7 it appears that the plans and specifications are not faithfully ad-

 9 at the expense of the owners in the supervision of the work.
 10 Upon a refusal of the owners or of their agents to adhere to said
 11 plans and specifications, said inspector may order the discontinu-

 5 determine and direct what alterations or repairs are required to

The proceeds from the sale of the vessel, after deducting all costs and expenses, shall be distributed among the several claimants according to the amount of their respective debts, except that, if such proceeds are insufficient to satisfy the liens of all, those who have liens for labor shall receive a percentage on their respective claims one-third greater, as near as may be, than those who have liens for materials, stores or other articles.
